

Local and Personal

J. F. Bay and daughter of Caruthersville were Cape visitors Sunday.

Miss Della Harrison of Decatur, Ill., spent Sunday in the Cape.

The contest closes Saturday evening, May 2nd, at 7 o'clock.

J. W. Moore of Canton, Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

R. Swift of St. Genevieve was a Cape visitor Sunday.

H. B. Lang of Chaffee spent Sunday in the Cape.

J. R. Ferrill of Illinois, spent Sunday in the Cape.

W. S. Cobb of Paxico is in the Cape on a business trip.

Steamer Rees Lee is due at the Cape going up Monday afternoon.

M. H. Weston and L. L. Butler of Chaffee were Cape visitors Monday.

H. Williams a business man of Forrest was in the Cape Monday.

Just about five weeks to get a free 20-acre farm or handsome piano. The contest closes on May 2nd.

H. J. Baker of St. Francis is in the Cape in the transaction of business.

It is no longer fashionable to keep a diary as people seem more anxious to forget than remember.

Binty Montroy and O. K. Steele of St. Marys had business in the Cape Monday.

G. D. Campbell of St. Louis was in the Cape on a business trip Monday.

There will be a meeting of the Factory Committee of the Commercial club Wednesday evening.

J. C. McLaughlin of Neelys Landing came down to the Cape Monday to attend to some business matters.

James Walker and H. Bryant of Bloomfield spent Monday in the Cape in the transaction of business.

William Vance of Glen Allen is in the Cape this week looking after business interests.

C. H. Meyers, brother of City Collector George Meyers is on the sick list these days.

There will be a meeting of the Fair Association Tuesday afternoon, at which several matters of importance will be considered.

Ernest Caldwell, a prominent farmer and stockman from McClure was in the Cape Tuesday on a business trip.

Cecil Koch, Blanche Koch and Lillian Goode of Chaffee, were in the Cape doing some shopping Monday.

T. D. Hines, the well known lawyer from Jackson came over to the Cape Tuesday to look after some business matters.

When you are passing on upper Broadway, take a look in the large windows of the Ford Garage, and see the new 1914 beauties.

Steamer St. Louis stopped for a few minutes at the Cape Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, on her first trip up for the season.

Albert Heiserer and Adam Heiserer, prominent farmers from near Dutchtown were in the Cape Monday on a trading trip.

The great Tribune Free Farm and Piano contest will close on Saturday evening, May 2nd, at 7 o'clock. Now get busy.

Some of our hotels are giving up finger bowls, but it is hoped they make other arrangements to satisfy their patrons.

Street car companies are putting on lower steps to accommodate women with narrow skirts, but they neglect to raise the roofs to fit the hat plumes.

Mr. Frank Seib from Dexter has recently purchased the old established cigar factory heretofore owned and operated by William Bauman in Haarig. Mr. Seib comes from Dexter to this place, and in the future will make the Cape his home. He contemplates enlarging the capacity of his factory at once, and will employ a large force of help. His shop will be strictly union, and will no doubt prove a valuable addition to the business interests of the city.

G. W. Carrell of Sikeston had business in the Cape Monday.

John Bollen of Jonesboro, Ill., was a Cape visitor Monday.

J. W. Austin and wife of Cairo, were Cape visitors Monday.

H. Cracraft of Memphis, Tenn., was a Cape visitor Monday.

W. J. Fisher of Springfield, Mo., has business in the Cape this week.

H. H. Piper of Jackson was in the Cape Monday on a business trip.

Leroy Henshaw of Springfield, Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

F. T. Coleman of Trenton, Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

John Campbell, the well known farmer of Route 3, was in town Tuesday on business.

Earl Burk has accepted a position as clerk with the American Clothing Company.

E. F. Wilson of Chaffee was in the Cape Monday looking after some business matters.

A. W. Harrison, a prominent citizen of Oran, was in the Cape transacting some business Monday.

L. T. Kinder a prominent citizen of Lutesville, had business in the Cape Monday.

Bohnsack's have the most complete line of spring suits, and the latest styles.

Charles Harris of Benton, Ill., was in the Cape Saturday on a business trip.

Cecil Cox of Sikeston was a visitor in the Cape Saturday, having some business matters demanding his attention in this city.

Jim Maglone a timberman from Advance is in the Cape dickering with some of our local sawmill men on a timber deal.

G. M. Easley, R. Wilson and C. C. Chapman of New Orleans were in the Cape Sunday looking over a good town.

The following St. Louis visitors spent Sunday in the Cape. Wallace Harker, M. Gross, W. L. Paris, M. Paulson, T. K. Smith, Miss Wulff, W. E. Dickson, Carl A. Campen, and W. H. McDonald.

William Hinkle left Tuesday for Kennett and other southern points where he has business interests. He expects to spend several days fishing on Little River before returning to the Cape.

G. E. Whitlam, formerly a Frisco official of this city, now holding an important position with the same company at Springfield, Mo., is in the Cape with his wife, visiting the family of N. S. Weller.

Steamer Cape Girardeau was compelled to lay in the Cape over Saturday night, leaving for Commerce early Sunday morning. She returned at about two o'clock in the afternoon, but only stopped long enough to take on one passenger.

E. E. Goodwin a railroad man of Chaffee came to the Cape Saturday to accompany his wife home. Mrs. Goodwin has been confined in the hospital in this city for several weeks, but returned with her husband Sunday entirely cured.

Money is convenient—but, it has its limitations. With plenty of it, but lacking the ability to select clothes which become you, you could spend every cent you own and still be poorly dressed. To overcome these limitations go to Bohnsacks.

Mr. Mike O'Connell, Sr., of Grand Tower, father of Mrs. Tom Gill and Mike O'Connell, Jr., proprietor of the St. Charles barber shop, came to the Cape Monday to visit with his children and receive medical attention. He is in a poor state of health, and is at an advanced age.

One of the two suit cases stolen from the trucks at the depot Monday night, was found Tuesday morning up near the ice plant. It had evidently been gone through, but apparently none of the contents were taken, and were of little value. The other suitcase has not been found.

Word was received at this place that the man Jones who is wanted for passing a worthless check to which the name of J. E. Mayhew was forged, recently, is being held at some place in Illinois, and a Burns detective has gone to investigate.

W. R. Allen of Jackson was over on business Tuesday.

Leland U. Mallett of Advance had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Jos. L. Hunter of Yates City, Ill., was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

W. T. John of Chaffee was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

Chas. F. Deltmar of St. Louis had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Geo. Bigger of Biggers, Ark., had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Charles and John Reed of Oak Ridge spent Tuesday in the Cape.

S. G. Elden of Louisville, Ky., is in the Cape on a business trip.

A. O. Clark of New Madrid was in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

C. D. Yancey of Poplar Bluff was in the Cape Tuesday on a business trip.

W. J. Thomas of Birch Tree was in the Cape Tuesday on a business trip.

E. M. Shepard of Louisville, Ky., is in the Cape attending to some business matters.

J. G. Adams of Wichita, Kan., was in the Cape on the transaction of business Tuesday.

J. B. Skaggs and G. M. Rice of Clarkton are in the Cape on a business trip.

G. M. Metzger, of Murphysboro, Ill., was in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

Otto Janness of Topeka, Kans., has been in the Cape for several days on a business trip.

Tom McClure a prominent farmer of McClure, Ill., was in the Cape Tuesday on a business trip.

J. S. Chenoweth of Marion, Ill., was in the Cape looking after some business matters Tuesday.

B. B. Arnold, a silo man from Kansas City is in the Cape this week on a business trip.

Bill McMillan of Swinton, Mo., is in the Cape this week transacting some business.

Otto Vedder and Emil Ledure of Commerce were in the Cape, attending to business matters Tuesday.

O. F. Gentry of Sikeston is in the Cape this week assisting W. B. Fasy in the vacuum cleaner business.

Tom Bastin, Charles Wakefield and J. Jones of Springfield, Mo., were in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

W. W. Norman an old time Cape county saw mill man, now living at Huntersville, Mo., is in the city on a business trip.

W. J. Meisenheimer a prominent citizen of Allenville, was in the Cape Wednesday looking after some business affairs.

G. W. Moore and O. M. Lafferty traveling salesmen from St. Louis, were in the Cape Tuesday looking after the interests of their customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Morrison of 610 William street are mighty happy over the arrival of a fine little girl, born Sunday night at about 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Albert Summers who has been very sick at the hospital for several days having undergone an operation, is getting along nicely, and is rapidly recovering.

It is reported that Mr. Ulrich, an elderly gentleman living at 114 South Benton street, has become insane and that his family physician has advised his removal to a sanitarium.

R. Cannon and daughter of Benton, who have been in the Cape for several days in consultation with local physician's concerning the health of Mr. Cannon, returned to their home Tuesday.

Frank Hill the young man who was arrested for assaulting W. J. Kirby was tried Tuesday in Judge Weller's court and given ten days in jail sentence to be suspended during good behavior.

The steamer Cape Girardeau, passed through the Cape on her downward trip Wednesday morning without stopping. On her return from Commerce she stopped and discharged a large amount of freight and loaded a good big shipment from this place. She arrived at about eight o'clock and left for St. Louis at about ten.

Sheriff William Summers moved to Jackson Wednesday.

Lon Forman who is employed in the Frisco offices at Chaffee came up Tuesday afternoon to visit his family who live at this place.

C. Vandygraph, Nellie Thompson, Mary Carley and Mary Mantem of Anceel were in the Cape Tuesday on a shopping expedition.

Albert Nicman, C. F. Eggiman, Walter Eggiman and Clarence Eggiman, prominent farmers from near Dutchtown, were in the Cape Tuesday disposing of country produce and doing some trading.

The Tribune is advised by Fred Goyert, County Clerk, that the County court will meet April 2 instead of the first Monday of the month as has been the custom heretofore. This change was made this month on account of the Board of Equalization meeting in the county court rooms next Monday.

L. W. People and family have moved from Poplar Bluff to the Cape and are now stopping at the Aquamir. Mr. People has as yet been unable to secure a suitable house, and will board until he is successful in securing desirable quarters in which to go to housekeeping. He is engaged in the insurance business in this city.

W. M. O'Heren of Bloomfield, was a visitor at the Tribune office Tuesday. Mr. O'Heren is a candidate for the office of collector of Stoddard County, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held in August. He is an old time citizen and very popular. He has for several years represented the Home Fire Insurance Company in that county, and in the performance of his duties has formed a broad acquaintance among the voters.

SOCIETY

Robt. L. Lamkin left Wednesday afternoon for Sikeston on business.

When a golf club gives a dance, is it a golf ball.

The ladies Euchre club will meet with Mrs. M. E. Hazen Thursday afternoon at her residence on South Middle street.

The Cemetery Association will meet Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. George Patton on South Lorimer street. All who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. R. B. Oliver Jr., and Mrs. Allen left Wednesday for St. Louis where they will spend a few days doing their spring shopping.

Some altars are like hotels, for transients only.

The body of Mrs. E. D. Hunter, mother of Mrs. L. B. Houck, of this city whose death occurred Monday morning, at the home of Mrs. Houck on College Hill was taken to New Madrid, Wednesday for burial.

The Drill Team of the Knights and Ladies of Security held their practice at the club room in the Vandeven building, Tuesday evening. They are working hard to secure one of the handsome prizes to be given at the National meeting of the organization in Detroit.

Many a gem of thought is injured by bad setting.

Don't get discouraged there is a remedy for everything except death and even that means a change of some kind.

While some of the people are killing flies to get rid of them, which is at best a revolting thing to do, one woman puts a pot of mignonette in the window of every room in her house and she says the flies will go far to keep out of its way. Now much nicer it would be to plant all the vacant lots in the city with mignonette than to be offering rewards for fly killing.

Three machines carrying 12 delegates of the M. W. A. to the county convention to be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Millerville, left their club rooms in the Vandeven building at nine this morning on the journey, in spite of the threatening weather. The Convention is being held for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention to take place at Sedalia, Mo., in the near future. The members of the M. W. A. making the trip were: Gust Stein, J. E. Fowler, J. A. Kaemper, W. A. Lawler, Gus Schultz, Geo. Summers, L. L. Dalton, R. B. Andrews, C. T. Lewis, T. J. Jude, and Wm. Overheide.

Loose habits generally lead to tight places.

Miss Leona Cunningham returned Tuesday from a two months outing in San Antonio, and other Texas cities. She had quite a delightful visit with Miss Rose Leming, who is spending the winter in San Antonio, and is very enthusiastic over that part of the country.

Miss Natilie Wilson will leave Wednesday afternoon for her home in Warrensburg, Mo., after spending the past two months with her sister Miss Estaline Wilson who is a member of the Normal faculty.

Many a man puts up a perfectly good bluff and then falls over the edge of it.

A missionary meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon.

The Christ's Church Guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at the apartment of Mrs. W. H. Harvey on Ellis street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee of Morley are in the city the guests of Mrs. Lee's sister, Mrs. Margraves, of College street.

Mr. John Kassell came up to the Cape Sunday for a visit with his brother F. H. Kassell, who has been quite ill with the gripe.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall of Benton, Mo., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kassell, of Broadway, Saturday and Sunday. Stopping here on their way to Oak Ridge where they will visit for a week or so.

At the meeting of the National Board of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington last week it was reported that more than a thousand applications for membership had been acted upon favorably. There was much discussion as to who would be the candidates for vice-president general at the May congress.

Don't explain, your friends don't need it, and your enemies won't believe you anyway.

How little the good things of this world appeal to those who can have them by the mere touch of a button.

An out of town wedding of great interest to the society folks in this city, that will take place April 15th at Madras, Mo., is that of Miss Genevieve Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chalmers Stokes, of Madras, and Dr. George Francis Ballas of Sedalia, Mo. The ceremony will be performed at 8:30 p. m. in the Presbyterian church, and the colors pink and white will prevail. Miss Rose Leming, one of Cape Girardeau's most prominent young ladies, and who has been passing the winter with her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Leming in San Antonio, Texas, will be one of the bridesmaids and Mr. Wade Kochitzky also prominent socially in this city will be the best man. A reception will be held at the residence of the brides parents, after which the young couple will leave for a wedding journey, before going to their future home at Sedalia, Mo.

The second annual convention of the Missouri Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' Association will be held in Springfield April 15. A reception will be given Wednesday evening and after the addresses of welcome, Dr. John Withers will give an address, his subject to be "Moral Education of the Child in the Home and in the School." The mayors of many cities in the state have appointed delegates and many circles are trying to increase their membership that they may have more credential cards.

The meeting of the Wednesday club will take place at the Normal Wednesday afternoon. The program is in charge of Mrs. A. S. Duckworth, and the following papers will be read: "The Effect of Women and Child Labor on Marriage," read by Mrs. W. W. Hinchey; "The Effect of Women and Children on Society," by Miss Mary Kochitzky; three minute discussion by Mrs. Duckworth and Mrs. R. B. Oliver Sr., Stanley Houghton, "Hindle Wakes," Miss Eleanor Tyler, A committee will report on the programme for the work of next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beirchwald of Good Hope street left Sunday for Advance where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Beirchwald's parents.

Ephraim Maybrey formerly of Lutesville but now an employe of the shoe factory and Miss Jessie Lutes of Lutesville were married in the Cape Sunday afternoon. They will make their home in this city.

A big celebration took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Heise, of 525 South Pacific street, in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations and palms, and in the center of the dining table a large cake was banked around with ferns and smilax, and 20 tiny cupid on the top.

A sumptuous supper was served the guests, after which toasts were made to the happy couple, wishing them many more years of happiness together.

Those who assisted at the celebration were, Messrs and Mesdames Heise, A. J. Vogel, A. C. Moore, Wm. Zapf, A. Marks, Wm. Vandilder, Mesdames Fred Schrader, H. J. Weiss, Misses Lillie Vogel, Jessie Piper, Jennie Van Gilder, Lillie Ingles, Anna Heise, Clara Heise, Dorothy Zapf, Ruth and Ruby Ingles, Marie Schrader, Messrs. Albert Weiss, J. W. Cope, Theo. Heise, Will Weiss, Herman Heise, Albert Marks, Harold White, Herbert Heise, Herbert Marks, Elmer Emil and Walter Vogel.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent Sunday by a large number of friends of Mrs. Albert Huhn, at her suburban home on Route 3. Cards were played during the afternoon, and a most delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

I'd rather be a Could Be
If I could not be an Are
For a Could be is a May Be
With a chance of touching par.
I'd rather be a Has Been
Than a Might Have Been by far,
For a Might Have Been has never been,<
But a Has Been was once an Are.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas P. Lail entertained a number of friends at their home on Independence street, Sunday evening. Those enjoying the evening were, Messrs and Mesdames Shirley Harger, Ed. Schindler, H. J. Strain, Vivian Dyer and R. M. Cowan.

The Civic Improvement Society held a meeting Saturday afternoon in the Commercial Club Rooms to elect officers for the coming year. The ladies chosen for the various positions were Mrs. A. H. Hinchey, president; Mrs. Ralph Schultz, secretary; Mrs. John Himmelberger, treasurer; the vice-presidents of the three wards are Mrs. Wm. H. Harrison, Mrs. P. B. Leming, and Mrs. Speak. The vice-president of the fourth ward has not yet been selected. The particular subject of the afternoon was the Ways and Means of beautifying the city by making flower beds and attractive places in the vacant lots and encouraging ones neighbor to clean up their property, and in this way help this worthy organization to clean up their property, and in the excellent work they have taken up. A mass meeting will be held at the Court house in the near future to enable the citizens of the Cape to get together, and understand the plans the Civic Improvement Society have made out for their Spring work, and to request the public to help them in raising the necessary funds to carry out these plans. Announcement of the date of this meeting, will be given in the Tribune later on. The club is also very much interested in the "Fly Swatting" contest now being so vigorously started by the Normal and Public Schools.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC.

of The Cape Daily Tribune published Daily (except Sunday) at Cape Girardeau, Mo., required by the Act of August 24, 1912.

Editor, Richard Frissell, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Managing Editor, Cyrus H. Bishop, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Business Manager, Aga J. Flentge, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Owners:—

Aga J. Flentge, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Cyrus H. Bishop, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders, holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities: Farmers & Merchants Bank, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Langston Monotype Machine Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date of this statement.—724.

CYRUS H. BISHOP,

Managing Editor.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 1st day of April, 1914.

(Seal) EDWARD L. DRUM,

Notary Public.

My commission expires August 17, 1915.

For Tightwads.
Advice to Misers—Take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of your heirs and their lawyers.—Dallas News.